The annual Pangolin London Christmas Show will offer a wide selection of sculpture, prints and drawings from a diverse range of emerging and established artists. With VAT increasing to 20% in January 2011 this show will be the last chance to purchase sculpture at the lower rate, as well as being an excellent opportunity to get that extra special Christmas gift.

The exhibition will be a vibrant and eclectic collection of contemporary and modern sculpture carefully selected to fall in an affordable price range. Pangolin London's Christmas show aims to offer visitors an insight into the diversity of sculpture and with the subject matter as broad-ranging as the media and prices, there is undoubtedly something here for everyone.

Prices range from £45 to £10,000
